

HARDING ALTERS PLANS FOR VISIT TO GETTYSBURG

Coal Conference May Cause Early Departure From Battlefield.

PLAN SPECIAL FIGHT

Demonstration of Pickett's Charge Immediately on His Arrival Tomorrow.

CAMP HARDING, Gettysburg, Pa., June 29.—President Harding is expected to arrive here about 3 o'clock Saturday. He will be received by Gen. Butler, Gov. Sproul, of Pennsylvania, and Senator George Wharton Pepper, and Marines and Pennsylvania State police will act as his guard of honor. A special demonstration of Pickett's charge will be given in honor of President Harding by the Marines, immediately after his arrival.

This will not affect the original plan to reproduce Pickett's charge on Monday and the charge under the flag on Tuesday, which will be given as originally scheduled. The President will probably leave Gettysburg Sunday morning on his way to Marlon, Ohio. On account of the conference on the coal situation and other urgent public business, it may not be possible for the President to carry out his visit on exactly the schedule indicated. President Harding will be accompanied by Mrs. Harding, Gen. and Mrs. Sawyer, Gen. Pershing and other distinguished guests.

Rehearse Battle.

This morning was spent by the Marines in camp here rehearsing in preparation for the historic demonstration planned for Tuesday. The afternoon was spent in a tactical exercise based on the second day's battle of Gettysburg, in which Gen. Sickles' Third Corps of the Army of the Potomac was caught in a salient position and overwhelmed by the Confederate army in the bloody fighting of the Peach Orchard. Sickles' corps was represented by Marines posted along the Emmitsburg road, and the attacking waves of the Confederates of Long street and Wood came over the ground covered in 1863 from Confederate avenue across the battlefield.

An amusing feature of the preparations for the demonstrations was furnished when Gen. Butler turned a battalion of Marines to cutting wheat on the battlefield. A considerable portion of the ground over which Pickett's men charged in 1863 is covered with a fine crop of ripe wheat, ready for harvesting. Old residents say that the same fields were covered with wheat in 1863, and that the wheat was totally ruined.

Marines Turn Farmers.

As the Marines feel that destroying wheat at $1.10 a bushel might prove a costly pastime, Gen. Butler went into conference with the farmer owning the wheat with the result that several reaping machines and a number of Marines went to work on the fields yesterday morning. By afternoon they were reaped clean and the wheat shocked and safe from possible damage.

Preparations are complete for receiving a host of guests who will attend the demonstration. Arrangements have been made with Gov. Sproul is regard to traffic arrangements, and huge parking spaces, in view of the exercises, have been arranged. Tenting arrangements have also been made for more than a hundred distinguished guests, including members of Congress and newspaper correspondents. A special excursion to the battlefield is being run from Baltimore early Monday morning, and railroads converging on Baltimore are arranging their schedules so that it will be possible for guests from other points to make connections promptly.

Three Years for Theft.

Percy Smallwood, colored, was sentenced to serve three years in the penitentiary yesterday by Chief Justice McCoy in Criminal Court for stealing two tires and two tubes from a garage owned by Samuel D. Lincoln, 601 M street northwest, on May 20 last.

Plans were perfected yesterday for a safe and sane Fourth of July celebration, to be held on the Capitol plaza on the evening of that day. The following program was approved by a committee of citizens which met in the board room of the District Building.

Beginning at 8 p. m. the Marine Band will give a preliminary concert to last fifteen minutes. The following two selections will be played during this period: "The Stars and Stripes Forever," by Sousa; overture, "The Voice of Our Nation," by Santelmann. The regular program will then follow:

Address, "American Ideals" — Dr. Earle Wilfay.

Selection, "Songs of the Old Folks" — Marine Band.

"Star Spangled Banner" — Charles B. Hanford.

Song—Children's chorus.

Address—Mrs. Lyman B. Swormstedt.

Selection, "My Own United States" — Marine Band.

"America's Creed"—William Tyler Page.

Address—A. E. Seymour.

Poem, "Our Country's Flag"—Mrs. Sarah E. Deeds.

"The End of a Perfect Day"—Children's chorus.

Selection, "Grand Military Tattoo"—Marine Band.

Miss Alice Pollock, in charge of the children's chorus, announced last night that the children should assemble either on the west or on the south terrace of the Capitol not later than 7:45 p. m. All children in the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades are expected to be on hand. They should each carry an American flag.

Parents should arrange to meet their children on the steps of the plaza at the conclusion of the exercises.

A vote of thanks was extended by the committee of citizens yesterday to Thomas J. Donovan for his efforts in arranging for the celebration. Thanks were also voted to Miss Pollock and Miss Norton for their efforts toward making the event a success.

The entire program, according to Mr. Donovan, will be held at an expense of less than $5.

CLAIM LIMITATION STATUTE QUASHES FIVE INDICTMENTS

Attorneys Seek Dismissal Of Knickerbocker Charges.

RESUME ON JULY 5

Lawyers Claim Clients Not Jointly Responsible for Construction Errors.

The five men held responsible for the collapse of the Knickerbocker Theater roof—crushing to death ninety-seven persons and injuring more than 100 others—should not have been jointly indicted by the District grand jury.

The statute of limitations bars the indictments, as the ill-fated theater was erected in 1917 and the indictments were returned in 1922—a lapse of more than three years as prescribed by law.

These are the grounds upon which the attorneys for the five men indicted in connection with the catastrophe are seeking to have the manslaughter charges quashed, as indicated in the arguments which were begun yesterday before Justice Siddons in Criminal Court No. 2.

Will Stand Test, He Says.

In response to these contentions, District Attorney Peyton Gordon declared that the indictments would stand any test and as far as the claims that they were outlawed by reason of the statute of limitations, he claims, the period of three years begins on January 28, the time when the theater roof collapsed.

The arguments which have not yet been completed, will resume on Wednesday July 5, Justice Siddons announced at the close of yesterday's session of the court.

The attorneys for the indicted men object to their clients being jointly indicted, claiming that they are not jointly responsible for the alleged errors in construction or building practice.

The indicted men, who are endeavoring to avoid going to trial on charges which involve a sentence of from one day to fifteen years, are represented by the following legal lights of the District: Attorneys C. B. Garnett and John S. Barbour appeared for Julian R. Downman, building inspector; George P. Hoover and Bernard and Johnson for John H. Ford, ironwork contractor; W. C. Sullivan for Donald Wallace, general foreman; Ellis and Ferguson for Richard G. Fletcher, fireproofing contractor; Daniel T. Wright for Reginald W. Geare, the architect.

District Attorney Peyton Gordon and his assistant, James J. O'Leary, are shouldering the government's side of the controversy.

BANQUET CLOSES SORORITY SESSION

A banquet in honor of visiting delegates to the Phi Mu sorority convention was held at Wardman Park Hotel last night. Hostesses to the more than thirty present were George Washington University Chapter, Washington Alumni Chapter and Baltimore Chapter. The dinner, which was featured by brief talks of members on sorority subjects, brought to a close the three-day convention.

Mrs. Ernest Syme was toastmistress and Miss Josephine Houston rendered a number of rousing sorority songs.

A tea was given at the home of Mrs. Julia Cook yesterday at which all active and inactive District sorority members were present. The organization was received at the White House by President Harding Wednesday morning. Later in the day the young women attended a musical at the home of Miss Gertrude Metzger, 3504 Sixteenth street northwest. Miss Sylvia Lent played the violin, accompanied by her mother.

Lad, Whipped, Contesses Killing His Stepmother

JACKSON, Miss., June 29.—Ellis Quinn, 9, was under arrest today on the charge of killing his stepmother, Mrs. Peter Quinn, at McCool, Miss.

The lad, after testifying at a coroner's hearing that he shot and killed Mrs. Quinn after she had severely whipped him and threatened to cut his throat unless he finished the family washing, before she returned from a nearby spring, was released on his own recognizance for a preliminary hearing.

Sues Garfield Hospital.

Dr. Walter H. Merrill, of the Medical Science Building, filed suit yesterday in District Supreme Court against Garfield Memorial Hospital to recover $2,000 alleged to be due for services rendered in connection with the management of the hospital's X-ray department. Through Attorney Eashy-Smith and Pine, Dr. Merrill claims that the hospital has failed to keep an agreement dated July 1, 1915, to pay him for his services.
